About

Wang Jieyin, born in 1941. Now working and living in Shanghai.

Wang Jieyin's works are refined with the realisation of the contemporary transformation of the traditional landscape painting. The classical sentiment as well as the composition of the Western form in his works are being transformed into his unique artistic language, revealing his pursue in ink presented contemporarily. Wang Jieyin cruises among print, oil and ink in a transcendent way, and attempts to deconstruct and transform the artistic approaches towards the Chinese classical literati painting. His works embrace both traditional aesthetics, and state-of-the-art spirits arising from the Modernist; hence his creations are being considered as the "Contemporary reawakening of the Chinese aesthetic of naivety".

Wang Jieyin's works have been exhibited around the world, and collected by important institutions such as Musee de Gravellines, Bibliothèque nationale de France, USC Pacific Asia Museum, Portland Art Museum, National Art Museum of China, Shanghai Long Museum etc.
